OUR GRAVEYARD

If you drive north on Christ Church Road you will shortly see to the right (east) the “ Old Stone Church “ surrounded by grave stones .This is our yard with 297 scattered stones dating from 1834 to date, including a burial on 5/9/2019.

Those who are eligible to be buried in our graveyard include, current Christ Church members, members of immediate of those who have family plots, contributing members of Christ Church. The Vicar may grant may grant permission for burial of professed Christians of any denomination, if in the Vicar’s judgment the reason for such be legitimate. Contact Donald Rager at don.rager@comcast.net if you have an interest.

A visit to “Find-A-Grave” on the Ancestry.com web site will allow you to read about 341 plus individuals memorialized there.

We still have lots of space for you and yours!

Although you will find us listed as Christ Episcopal Church Cemetery; in fact, we are now Anglican. Over the the last 179 years we have been known as Christ Church Lower Kickapoo, Christ Church Limestone and now Christ Church Limestone (Anglican).

The Grid Map shows all of the Gravestones:

Each grid block is 6 ft. by 6 ft.so each block without a letter is an open plot available for sale (sold plots are 4 ft.by 9ft.)
